This area including Mt. Apoi in the southern Hidaka Mountains became the 35th national park in Japan.

Experience a natural environment unparalleled anywhere in the world,
and delve into the depths of trail culture.

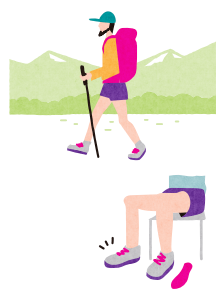

Learn new things at the foot of the mountain, make new discoveries in the mountains, and experience new thrills at the campsite over a period of two days.

#01 MARKET

Right Next to Nature

Cottage brands and hiking gear stores from inside and outside Hokkaido that attract a core group of visitors will set up booths. Selecting gear while in the wilderness allows you to really experience the true quality of the gear.

#02 WORK SHOP

Update Your Gear and Information

In addition to a barefoot hiking workshop held by Vivobarefoot and a booth where visitors can test ride the latest E-MTBs, there will also be a workshop for making trail food. Learning enhances the enjoyment of hiking in the wilderness.

*Please note that the contents are subject to change without notice.
*Some workshops have limited capacity.

#03 TALK SHOW

Protecting the Nature and Culture

In the evening, guests will be invited to give a talk on the theme of "Recommendations for Long Trails." Walking allows people to enjoy not only nature but also encounters with other towns and people. The talk will look at what can be done to protect and convey the charm of these trails.
